Bruce J. Nicholson Joins Alliance Mining's Board

Kamloops, BC: Alliance Mining Corp. (the "Company" or "Alliance") is very pleased to report that Bruce J. Nicholson has joined the Board of Directors and been appointed Chief Financial Officer, effective today.

Mr. Nicholson will replace David Thatcher who resigned as a director and Chief financial Officer of the Company on September 4, 2009. The Company would like to thank Mr. Thatcher for his contributions as a board member and as the past Chief Financial Officer of the Company and wish him all the best!

Mr. Nicholson has spent 15 years as an industry specialist in the basic materials and metals and mining industries working for major U.S. and European global banks, broker dealers, investment funds, and producers of physical commodities. During his career, Mr. Nicholson has been employed by the Bank of New York, Deutsche Bank, BNP Paribas, and Citigroup. Most recently, he has worked as a financial consultant to a number of publicly traded small cap companies in the bio-degradable plastics, oil and gas, and in the mining industry. Mr. Nicholson was Chairman of the New York Section of the Society for Mining Exploration (SME) from 2007-08 and a member of the Minerals Economics and Management Society (MEMS), Minerals Industry Analyst Group (MRAG), and New York Society of Securities Analysts (NYSSA). Mr. Nicholson graduated with a M.B.A. degree in Finance from Rutgers University in 1995 and is a Chartered Financial Analyst.

About Alliance:

Alliance's strategy is to concentrate on historical mining districts that have the potential to host several to hundreds of mineral deposits and selectively delineating the higher-grade zones for selective mining and placing lower grade bigger tonnages into resource classifications by using state of the art technologies that are not only cost effective but environmentally safe. Alliance is presently focused on its portfolio of gold and base metal properties in central Arizona.

Certain of the statements made and information contained herein is "forward-looking information" within the meaning of the Ontario Securities Act. This includes statements concerning the Company's plans at its mineral properties, which involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results, performance or achievements of the Company, or industry results, to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking information. Forward-looking information is subject to a variety of risks and uncertainties which could cause actual events or results to differ from those reflected in the forward-looking information, including, without limitation, the availability of financing for activities, risks and uncertainties relating to the interpretation of drill results and the estimation of mineral resources and reserves, the geology, grade and continuity of mineral deposits, the possibility that future exploration, development or mining results will not be consistent with the Company's expectations, metal price fluctuations, environmental and regulatory requirements, availability of permits, escalating costs of remediation and mitigation, risk of title loss, the effects of accidents, equipment breakdowns, labour disputes or other unanticipated difficulties with or interruptions in exploration or development, the potential for delays in exploration or development activities, the inherent uncertainty of production and cost estimates and the potential for unexpected costs and expenses, commodity price fluctuations, currency fluctuations, expectations and beliefs of management and other risks and uncertainties. In addition, forward-looking information is based on various assumptions. Should one or more of these risks and uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those described in forward-looking statements. Accordingly, readers are advised not to place undue reliance on forward-looking information. Except as required under applicable securities legislation, the Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise forward-looking information, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
